

Corporate Training

This section contains a collection of training materials created for corporate learning programs. The presentations are designed to help employees understand key tools, processes, and best practices through clear explanations and practical examples.

Microsoft Teams	A practical guide to effective online collaboration, including team communication, meetings, chat features, file sharing, and workspace organization.	View →
Microsoft OneDrive	A training resource focused on managing documents in the cloud, organizing files, controlling access, and working with shared company materials.	View →
Microsoft Outlook	A guide to improving daily productivity through email management, calendar planning, meeting scheduling, and task organization.	View →